

Love's Fragrance

I breathe you in.
The fragrance of your love
Comes to me on sea-borne breezes,
A tantalising perfume:
Subtly different, never the same.

Its top-notes
Gentleness and strength
Laughter and meditation:
Its bass-note
The depth of your love like a soothing oil.

How fragrant you are, how fragrant
As delicate as a budding rose
As poignant as a crimson sunset
As beautiful as a lake at dawn,
With sunlight shafting in the cool of the morning.

This heady perfume
Fills my mind, entrances me with visions
Reminds me of my wings and helps me fly:
This fragrance will be with me always,
For always will I breathe you in.
